MAY BE MANSLAUGHTER.

Edward Herbert, Who Was Stabbed,

in a Precarious Condition. Edward Herbert, of Dundaff street who was stabbed Sunday night by Tomasi Siriano, as the result of a fight in front of a house near the railroad crossing on Fallbrook street, where an Italian wedding was being celebrated, was in a precarious condition last night at 10 o'clock and the doctors in attendance said the chances were very much against his recovery. The rusty, dirty old knife used entered the abdominal cavity and let the intestines put. Peritonitis is feared. If alive this morning an operation will be-performed on the unfortunate man. Siriano was identified by Herbert yesterday afternoon, and at the hearing before Alderman Jones last night was committed to jail to await the result of Herbert's injury.

He is also charged with chewing off Michael Golden's ear.

G. A. R. INSPECTION.

On Wednesday evening, October 10 William H. Davies post, No. 187, Grand Army of the Republic, will have their annual inspection. Comrades are requested to turn out early, and to bear in mind the bean banquet, which is to be a feature of the occasion.

HARVEST HOME SERVICES.

Held in the Ash Street M. E. Church Sunday Evening.

The congregation of the Ash Street Methodist Episcopal church held their Harvest Home services on Sunday evening. At the appointed hour the church was well filled with people whose faces beamed with sunshine. A large donation of vegetables and choice fruits, tastily arranged, adorned the entire front of the room. The products will be distributed among the needy families of that part of the city.

Rev. Joseph Madison, of Green Ridge, was in charge and preached an inspiring sermon, taking as his theme, "The Choice of Moses." The choir and most effectively. After the sermon, Rev. Mr. Madison asked the congregation for a contribution of sufficient size to meet all the annual benevolent collections. The people responded promptly and cheerfully, and when the secretary counted up he announced that considerable more than the apportionment for the charge had been raised. The surplus money will be adedd as an extra offering to the missionary collection.

The congregation sang, "God Be with You Till We Meet Again," and were dismissed by the pastor.

When Walter E. Perkins and "The Man from Mexico" comes to the Lyceum tonight, jocund mirth will hold full sway and laughter will drive dull care away; a blend of fun and humor bright, like twinkling stars in dusky night will pierce the mask of carking care and leave no trace of fromble there. Should lovers' quarrels leave a frown, when Walter Perkins comes to town, his fun has all the saving grace to smooth such wrinkles the face; when Perkins comes upon the stage, his patrons' interest to engage, a smile goes round and then a laugh, at quips of his ebullient chaff: the laugh soon changes to a roar, like breakers beating on the shore: the fun once started never stops, the thread of humor never drops; but keeps increasing in the run till all the funny play is done.
